

41th Journées de Microéconomie Appliquée

JMA 2025

June 5-6, 2025 | Poitiers

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Laboratoire d'économie de Poitiers (LéP) is proud to organize the 41st Applied Microeconomics Days, to be held on

5 and 6 June 2025

on the campus of the Université de Poitiers, Building A1, 2 rue Jean Carbonnier.

The purpose of this two-day conference is to bring together academics and researchers to present and discuss their ongoing research, and to stimulate interaction and cooperation between them. Topics with an interest in the broad area of applied microeconomics are covered: consumer and demand analysis, producer and cost analysis, industrial economics, organizational economics, innovation economics, labor, education, migration economics, health, family economics, public economics, spatial economics, transportations, finance, risk and insurance, development economics, welfare economics, agricultural economics, environmental economics and natural resources, law and economics, behavioral and experimental economics, applied micro econometrics, etc.

The keynote lecture will be given by Clément de Chaisemartin, professor of economics at Sciences Po Paris, France.

The JMA's job market will give the opportunity to PhD candidates and post-doctoral researchers to signal themselves in the program as candidates for the next recruitment campaigns.

The Revue économique will devote a special issue for this conference in September 2026.
